This afternoon workshop will cover two topics.
“Crisis Intervention” and “Victim of Crime”

Wednesday, October 24, 2018

12:30pm to 1:00pm – Check in and Reception

1:00pm – 2:30pm – Crisis Response Team (CRT)

Presented by: Joseph Avalos, Director, Crisis Response Team – Mayor’s Office of Public Safety (City of Los Angeles)

Joe will speak to us about the duties and help provided by the CRT. When there is a crisis in the community involving violence, injury or death, the Team is dispatched. This team provides support and crisis intervention services to individuals involved, and to their families. They refer families to a mortuary when needed. The CRT works at the request of the Police & Fire Departments, and work closely with the Victim of Crime Program.

2:45pm – 4:15pm – Victim of Crime

Presented by: Shari Farmer, Field Deputy/Community Outreach Coordinator – Los Angeles County District Attorney’s Bureau of Victim Services. Shari will share with us the many services and resources available to Victims of Crime in our community. Counseling resources, financial resources and other services available to victims and their families. Shari will discuss the application process, requirements to qualify, and answer any questions regarding the programs.

The deadline to register for this workshop is
